

Authority

This registration standard was approved by the Australian Health Workforce Ministerial Council on 27 April 2012, pursuant to the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law (the National Law) as in force in each state and territory, with approval taking effect from 1 June 2012.

Summary

An applicant for provisional registration as a psychologist must have completed an accredited four-year sequence of psychology study, or a sequence of study that, in the opinion of the Board, is substantially equivalent. Provisional registration is granted to enable an individual to complete years five and six of supervised practice as part of a minimum six-year sequence of study approved by the Board, in order to become eligible for general registration.

The Board has determined that the qualification that leads to registration as a general psychologist is a six-year accredited sequence of study, comprising a Master's degree minimum qualification, or equivalent. The Board will recognise the following six-year sequences of study as equivalent:

- (a) a five-year accredited sequence of study followed by a one-year Board-approved internship (5+1), or
- (b) a four-year accredited sequence of study followed by a two-year Board-approved internship (4+2).

A provisional psychologist may not undertake dual pathways; that is, mixing components of two different pathways to make up a six-year sequence of study will not be accepted as completing an approved qualification leading to general registration.

Scope of application

This standard applies to all applicants for provisional registration and registered provisional psychologists. It includes candidates undertaking practical placements as part of an accredited six-year sequence of study who are registered as provisional psychologists.

Requirements of the 4+2 internship program

1. The core capabilities and attributes of the two-year internship program that must be achieved by the provisional psychologist are:
 - a) knowledge of the discipline
 - b) ethical, legal and professional matters
 - c) psychological assessment and measurement

- d) intervention strategies
- e) research and evaluation
- f) communication and interpersonal relationships
- g) working within a cross-cultural context, and
- h) practice across the lifespan.

2. A provisional psychologist undertaking the Board-approved two-year internship must successfully complete the internship in accordance with the Board's internship guidelines, which include:
 - a) a minimum two-year program based on a 35-hour week and seven-hour day, totalling a minimum of 3,080 hours
 - b) a minimum of 17.5 hours per week internship
 - c) a maximum eight-week provision for annual and personal leave per year
 - d) one-on-one supervision with a Board-approved supervisor at a ratio of one hour of supervision to 17.5 hours of supervised practice. Two-thirds must be individual supervision, with the rest either being individual or group supervision, and
 - e) a minimum of 60 hours of professional development per full-time year designed to meet the eight competencies of the internship program. The pro rata equivalent applies to part-time practice.
3. The program must consist of a minimum of 40 per cent client contact and the remainder (up to 60 per cent) client-related activities.
4. The program must be completed within a maximum of five years from commencement.
5. All work roles/placements (internship program only) must be approved by the Board prior to commencement.
6. Six-monthly progress reports must be submitted by the supervisor and the provisional psychologist.
7. At the completion of the internship program, a final assessment of competence form signed by the supervisor and case studies completed by the provisional psychologist must be submitted with an application for general registration.

Requirements of the 5+1 internship program

1. The core capabilities and attributes of the internship program that must be achieved by the provisional psychologist are:

- a) knowledge of the discipline
 - b) ethical, legal and professional matters
 - c) psychological assessment and measurement
 - d) intervention strategies
 - e) research and evaluation
 - f) communication and interpersonal relationships
 - g) working within a cross-cultural context, and
 - h) practice across the lifespan.
2. The provisional psychologist undertaking the Board-approved 5+1 internship must complete two years of study comprising:
 - a) one year of an accredited fifth year of professional psychology study, plus
 - b) one year (sixth year) of a Board-approved supervised practice internship.
 3. A provisional psychologist must successfully complete the sixth year supervised practice internship in accordance with the Board's guidelines, which include:
 - a) a minimum one-year program based on a 35-hour week and seven-hour day, totalling a minimum of 1,540 hours
 - b) a minimum of 17.5 hours per week internship
 - c) a maximum eight-week provision for annual and personal leave per year
 - d) one-on-one supervision with a Board-approved supervisor at a ratio of one hour of supervision to 17.5 hours of supervised practice. Two-thirds must be individual supervision, with the rest either being individual or group supervision, and
 - e) a minimum of 60 hours of professional development designed to meet the eight competencies of the internship program. The pro rata equivalent applies to part-time practice.
 4. The sixth year program must consist of a minimum of 40 per cent client contact and the remainder (up to 60 per cent) client-related activities.
 5. The 5+1 program must be completed within a maximum of five years from commencement.
 6. All work roles/placements in the sixth year internship must be approved by the Board (or by the accreditation agency if the internship is accredited) prior to commencement.

7. A six-month progress report and case studies completed by the provisional psychologist must be submitted by the supervisor and the provisional psychologist.
8. At the completion of the sixth year internship program, a final assessment of competence form signed by the supervisor must be submitted with an application for general registration.

Requirements of the accredited professional degree

1. An applicant for provisional registration must provide evidence of current enrolment in an accredited professional degree leading to general registration.
2. A provisional psychologist undertaking an accredited professional degree leading to general registration must be registered from the commencement of enrolment and for the duration of enrolment. Psychological practice must not be undertaken until the application for provisional registration is approved. An application for general registration may not be approved where these requirements have not been met.

Definitions

Client-related activities for the purposes of the internship program mean activities including reading and researching to assist problem formulation and diagnosis; case consultation with colleagues; formal and informal reporting; and professional development.

Internship means a supervised practice program approved by the Board.

Client contact, for the purposes of the internship program, means direct client contact, which includes performing specific tasks of psychological assessment, intervention and prevention.

Supervisor means a registered general psychologist approved by the Board acting as principal supervisor to a provisional psychologist undertaking an internship program. A supervisor must have a minimum of three years' experience as a registered general psychologist and have completed a Board-approved training program in psychology supervision prior to applying to act as a Board-approved supervisor.
