

UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS

With you all the way

Leading the next generation of psychologists

The APS is the peak professional body representing psychologists in Australia. There are so many reasons to be part of our community.

Take advantage of member only benefits to improve your uni results and enhance future career prospects.

Student HQ is your curated portals to everything that will guide and support your journey into the psychology industry.

Study resources

Peer and professional networking

Industry news
and journals

Webinars, online learning
and conferences

Volunteer and job opportunities

Industry discounts

UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS

Need more info?
Scan here to get in touch.

Our vision is to realise the full human potential of Australians through the application of psychological science and knowledge.

In our last student survey, members told us

“I have found the practice guides for a range of developmental conditions extremely useful, such as the ASD and ADHD practice guides” – Rachel

“I primarily joined to access documents for assignments but have found the membership more beneficial than I expected” – Rocco

“I found the website extremely helpful with my studies and I believe through utilising different information on the website, it helped me achieve an incredibly high score in my unit on Ethics” – Sharla

We're dedicated to advocating on social issues, and as a member you have a voice that can influence those that are most important to you.

Some of the areas we're committed to include:

- Reconciliation
- LGBTQI+ rights
- Disability
- Diversity and inclusion
- Climate change
- Mental health reform
- Unemployment
- Refugees and asylum seekers
- Child sexual abuse
- Human rights
- Disaster relief
- Aged care

Membership is only $55 per year – less than a coffee per month

Become a member now

psychology.org.au/studenthq

Download the app and access benefits whenever you need them.